

Children Missing Education

All children are entitled to a full time education which is suitable to their age, ability, aptitude & special educational needs.

Local authorities must try to identify children who are missing education in their area.

A child or young person is considered to be missing from education if they are of compulsory school age (5-16) and:

- Are not on a school roll
- Are not being educated at home, privately or in alternative provision
- Have been out of educational provision for a substantial period of time

A child going missing from education is a potential indicator of abuse or neglect.

Staff should be alert to safeguarding concerns such as sexual exploitation, travelling to conflict zones, Female Genital Mutilation and forced marriage, to help prevent the risks of pupils going missing.

Some circumstances can leave children and young people at more risk of not receiving education, including those who are:

- At risk of abuse or neglect
- In Gypsy, Roma, Traveller or Armed Forces families
- Involved in the youth justice system
- Living in a refuge or fleeing domestic abuse
- Part of a homeless family
- Young runaways or missing children
- Asylum seekers, refugees, or new immigrants
- Teenage mothers
- Excluded from or not attending from school

Ofsted recommends that all schools should:

- Keep travellers on role at their 'base school'
- Follow agreed procedures for exclusions
- Maintain communication with the Local Authority about absence, exclusion & taking pupils off role
- Have safeguarding policies & processes that give due weight to children and young people missing from education and their potential vulnerability
- DO NOT advise pupils to stay home without an official exclusion as it is unlawful & places the pupil at risk

All schools must inform the local authority immediately if they intend to remove a pupil from the admission register if they have:

- Been taken out of school for home education
- Moved too far away to travel to school
- Health problems that prevent their attendance before ceasing to be of compulsory school age
- Had a custodial sentence of over 4 months
- Been permanently excluded

Schools must also inform the local authority of:

- Any pupil who fails to attend school regularly
- Has been absent without permission for 10 schools days or more

Where a college provides education for a child of compulsory school age, the college shall inform the local authority:

- About their attendance and absence
- If they are removed from roll
