

Success Criteria:

- I know the two times we use apostrophes
- I can explain what possession and omission mean
- I can identify why an apostrophe has been used
- I can add in an apostrophe for possession or omission correctly

Support – I/FS/PS

For the sentences below, write whether the apostrophe is for possession or omission:

Practise

	possession or omission?
The whale's blowhole sent a huge fountain up into the sky.
As Piglet Squid swam through the sea, he didn't see the coffinfish.
The weebegone fish looked sad because they couldn't find a reason to smile.
Piglet Squid's smile was even bigger when he saw the stars.

Add in or move the apostrophe to the correct place.

Write the correction on the line underneath.

Independent Task

Piglet Squids cave was dark and gloomy.

_____

He did'nt know why the weebegone fish were so sad.

_____

The stars wouldnt stop shining down on Piglet Squid.

_____

The creatures' were trapped in the whales belly.

_____

Deepening

Can you write a sentence about Piglet Squid that has BOTH types of apostrophe in?