

Happy snow day!!

Imagine you have never seen snow before. You have woken up, and your street has been turned into a winter wonderland!

Write a setting description to describe your first experience of stepping out into the snow.

Think about the different senses...

Introduce

see

touch

taste

hear

smell

feel

Questions to think about!

What do you see?

What does the snow feel like?

What colour is the sky?

What does the air smell like?

What colours do you see?

What do you hear?

How do you feel about your street being turned into a winter wonderland?

Sentence Starters...

Introduce

As I looked around I noticed...

I could smell...

The snow felt like...

In the distance I could hear...

Out of the corner of my eye I noticed...

The air felt...

I was surprised by...

SPaG features to try and include...

Introduce

adjectives

co-ordinating conjunctions
&
subordinating conjunctions

exclamation
and question
sentences

synonyms

adverbs

suffixes - er, est,
ed, ing, ly, ness,
ment, less, ful

expanded noun phrases
determiner, adjective, noun

Use the handwriting paper to write your setting description.

Here's an idea of how to start...

I woke with a start as my alarm rang out loudly across my bedroom. I waited for a moment before slowly tiptoeing out of bed. It was then that I noticed that something seemed different. The world was so quiet...too quiet. I raced towards the window to open the curtains. My eyes widened in amazement at the magical sight before me. My whole street had be turned into a beautiful winter wonderland. I had never seen snow before, so I hurriedly raced downstairs and out the door. As soon as I stepped outside, the biggest shiver ran right down my spine. It was freezing!