This week you could...

- Practise your class poem for our performance at the church on Friday 22nd December. Poems are saved on the Homework page for this week.

- In English, we have been thinking about our senses (seeing, hearing, tasting, touching and smelling). What can you see, hear, smell, touch and taste in your house or garden?

- In art, we have learnt about L.S.Lowry - an artist from Manchester who is famous for his landscapes of factories and building and matchstalk people. Can you practise your shading skills? Can you draw your house in the style of Lowry?

Design your own homework
