Food

The cuisine depends on the region but poutine, maple syrup and butter tarts are all thought of as national foods.

Poutine - a popular Canadian dish, originally from Québec. It is made with French fries and topped with gravy and cheese curds.

Maple syrup - made from the sap of certain species of maple trees. It is often eaten with waffles, pancakes, French toast, oatmeal or porridge.

Butter tarts - made of butter, sugar, eggs, syrup, raisins and sometimes walnuts or pecans.
