

Engage
(max 5 mins)

ILTP write a shape poem

Introduce

No!
Not more rain
splashing on the window pane. In the main, I don't complain.
The fact remains, the drains contain so much rain that they are strained. The weather vane's become inane, when every day it rains again. It's plain to see for you
and
me
it has
to be the end
of play.

What are these shape poem's about?

What can you see in this Autumn picture?

Imagine you are walking through this Autumn woods. What might you see? What might you find?

Listen to this song for some inspiration!

What things do you see during Autumn?

Consider & Practise

Independent

Writing Challenge

Autumn Shape Poem

Use the frames to create an autumn shape poem by writing about the different things you see at Autumn.

Challenge: can you include words to describe what autumn is like?

