

Tell Your Partner.

1) What you had for breakfast today.

2) How you got to school this morning.

RULES:

- You must use the word 'and'
- You can only use the word 'and' ONCE!

Introduce

(5 mins)

Key Learning: to use 'and' to join two simple sentences

Success Criteria:

- I can recall what a simple sentence is.
- I know that we can use the co-ordinating conjunction 'and' to join two simple sentences.
- I can choose two simple sentences and join them using 'and'.

Deepen - I can correct the mistakes in sentences.

Let's
Recap

What does a simple sentence need?

A simple sentence needs...

- A capital letter
  - A full stop
  - A subject noun and a verb
-

Put this cut up sentence back into order so the sentence makes sense:

put juicy a Handa basket. her in orange

Is this a simple sentence?

Subject

Noun =

Verb =

---

Mrs Granger has been writing sentences about Handa's Surprise...

Introduce

The gentle giraffe reached for Handa's basket.

Subject
Noun =
Verb =

He stole the spiky pineapple.

Subject
Noun =
Verb =

Which word can Mrs Granger use to join these sentences together?

The gentle giraffe reached for Handa's basket, and he stole the spiky pineapple.

What punctuation can you spot before the word 'and'?

'and' is a special word because...

- It can be used to join two sentences or ideas together.
  - It helps us add extra detail to our writing.
-

'and' has a special name...

co-ordinating conjunction

We use a comma before a co-ordinating conjunction!

---

Let's join these two simple sentences together...

Introduce

What do I need to change?

Handa filled her basket with delicious fruits.

She set off to Akeyo's house.

Two sets of handwriting practice lines. Each set consists of a top red line, a middle blue line, and a bottom red line, providing a guide for letter height and placement.

What type of punctuation do I need to use before the word 'and'?

comma

Mrs Granger has joined two simple sentences together using the co-ordinating conjunction 'and'.

Akeyo smiled at Handa.

He crashed into the tall tree.

Akeyo smiled at Handa, and he crashed into the tall tree.

Has Mrs Granger joined these two sentences correctly?

It's Your Turn!

Practise
and consider

Choose 2 simple sentences that fit together to make one sentence and join them using the word 'and'.

REMEMBER!

- Remove the full stop from the first sentence.
- Add in a comma before the word 'and'.
- Remove the capital letter from the second sentence.
- Make sure the two sentences make sense!

Miss Hughes thinks she has written a great sentence because she has used the word 'and'.

What do you think?

Handa picked three delicious fruits, and put them in her basket, and then put it on her head, and started to walk to Akeyo's house, and didn't notice the animals behind her.

'And' is used too many times - I'm out of breath!

Using 'and' once is fine.

It's Your Turn!

Independent

Choose two sentences. Join them together using 'and'.
Write the new sentence in your book.

Don't forget your punctuation!
Do this 3 times.

Choose 1 sentence from the green group and 1 sentence from the red group that fit together. Join them using the conjunction 'and'.

Independent

Handa picked three tasty fruits.

The large elephant reached out his trunk.

The angry goat broke the rope.

He escaped from the grassy field.

She placed the heavy basket on her head.

He stole the juicy grapes from the basket.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of alternating red and blue horizontal lines for writing.

Deepening

Can you correct the mistakes in these sentences using your green pen?

Deepening

A stripy zebra took a ripe mango and ran off into the sunset.

The cheeky monkey climbed up the tree. and he stole a yellow banana.

The angry goat crashed into the tree, And All the oranges fell into the basket.

Review and Improve

What are our rules when using 'and' in a sentence?

1. 'and' brings two parts of a sentence together.
2. 'and' should only be used once in a sentence.
3. A comma is used before the word 'and'
4. 'and' is a co-ordinating conjunction.