

Key Learning: to use apostrophes for omission

Tuesday 18th January 2022

Success Criteria:

DJ

I can explain when we use apostrophes for omission

I can match the root words to the correct contraction word

I can write the contraction from two root words and add the apostrophe in the right place

Deepening: I can write sentences with contractions in about Finding Nemo

Independent

I am →

you are →

she is →

should not →

we have →

they will →

you have →

Choose one of the contracted words and use it in a sentence about Finding Nemo.

Deepening

can't

he's wouldn't

it's wasn't

didn't

she's they'll

Can you think of your own contracted word and use it to write a sentence in your book?