

couldnt
dont
Im its Ive
wasnt
Hes
Dorys eyes
Nemos fin
the dentists office
the sharks teeth
Marlins son
Crushs shell
Mr Rays tail
Nigels beak

Engage
(max 5 mins)

Finding Nemo

Consider & Practise

Marlin wasn't sure where to search by himself, so he asked Dory to help. He told Dory all about the diver's mask, and how it would lead them to Nemo.

"Nemo's fin is very small," he explained "and I'm afraid he'll get eaten!"

Dory's eyes lit up with excitement as she agreed to help. They didn't have much luck, but carried on trying. On their journey they met a friendly shark called Bruce. As they swam into Bruce's gloomy shipwreck, Marlin began to shiver with fear. "I don't think this is a very good idea Dory." whispered Marlin.

Key Learning: to use apostrophes for possession and omission Wednesday 19th January 2022

Success Criteria:

- I can explain what omission and possession mean.
- I can identify apostrophes for omission and possession.
- I can write the contraction for two root words.
- I can add in an apostrophe to show possession.

Support – I/FS/PS

Read each sentence carefully. Find the word that is missing the apostrophe and write it correctly on the dotted line underneath.

Dory and Marlin timidly swam into Bruces terrifying shipwreck.

Independent Task

.....

Nemo was afraid because he didnt know where he was.

.....

Mr Rays pupils sang happily as they followed him through the coral reef.

.....

The two brave fish sadly couldnt find Nemo anywhere.

.....

Dorys eyes lit up as she excitedly said to Marlin “Ill help you!”

.....

.....

Write one sentence that uses an apostrophe for possession.

Deepening

Write one sentence that uses an apostrophe for omission.

Can you write a sentence that has BOTH an apostrophe for possession and omission?

Use these pictures to help you.

A series of horizontal lines for writing, alternating between blue and red lines to create a guide for letter height. There are 20 lines in total, starting from the top of the page and extending to the bottom.