A young monkey hiding from the rain
under a leaf in a rainforest!

Let's read our WAGOLL together...

As we are reading, think about the SPaG features in the WAGOLL and any words you could magpie from it!

It was another scorching hot day in the Amazon rainforest. The rain was a welcome and refreshing break from the sunshine that had been gleaming brightly all day. The little monkey could hear a rumble of distant thunder which was a sure sign that this was just the beginning of the storm. Holding a large leaf over his head, he sat comfortably on a small round tree stump. Raindrops fell onto the leaf, and it sounded like drumming. He stared into the forest quietly and wondered when the rest of his monkey friends would return.

Let's plan our creative write by answering these questions!

Practise and consider

Practise

Why is he on his own?

Where is the monkey?

monkey in the rainforest

What can he see/hear/smell/tauch?

How is he feeling?

Can you describe the monkey and the leaf?

Does it rain a lot where he lives?

How could we improve these pieces of writing?

The monkey was freezing and soggy because the delicate leaf was ~~not~~ keeping him dry. He was also worried about his friends, and he wondered where they had gone.

Now it's your turn....

It was another scorching day in the tropical rainforest. As the thunder rumbled menacingly in the distance, a little, timid monkey was trying to find shelter!!
