WALT: understand that we have skills and talents that are valuable.

I understand that we are all unique.

I know that we are the same, we are different but we are equal.

I can say how I am talented / unique / special.

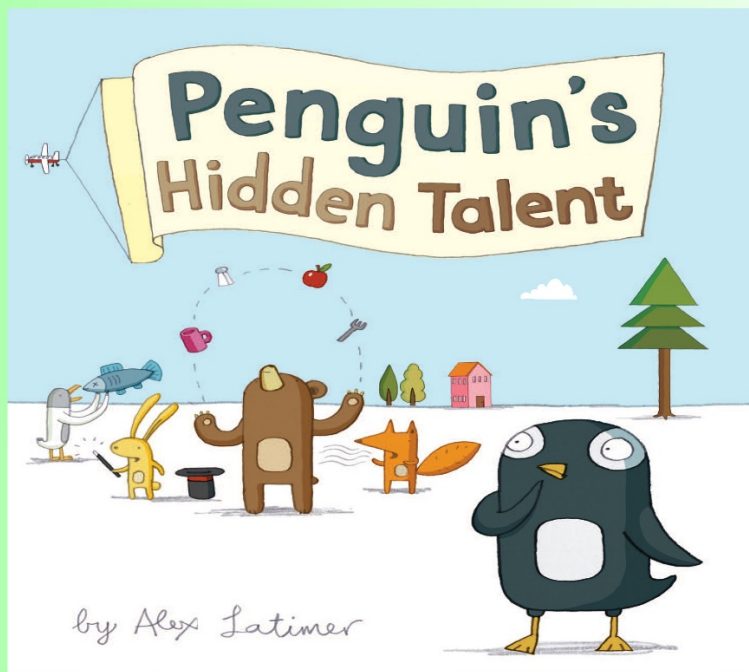

unique same different equal
talent special pride

Story Time

Introduce

All of Penguins friends are excited about the upcoming talent show, but Penguin can't seem to figure out what his talent is. He tries juggling appliances with Bear, doing magic tricks with Rabbit, and burping the alphabet with Fox, but he doesn't seem to be good at any of it.

Practise and consider

Penguin learned that he was indeed special, and had his own talents which made him amazing even though they were different from his friends.

How are you special and unique?

What talents do you have?

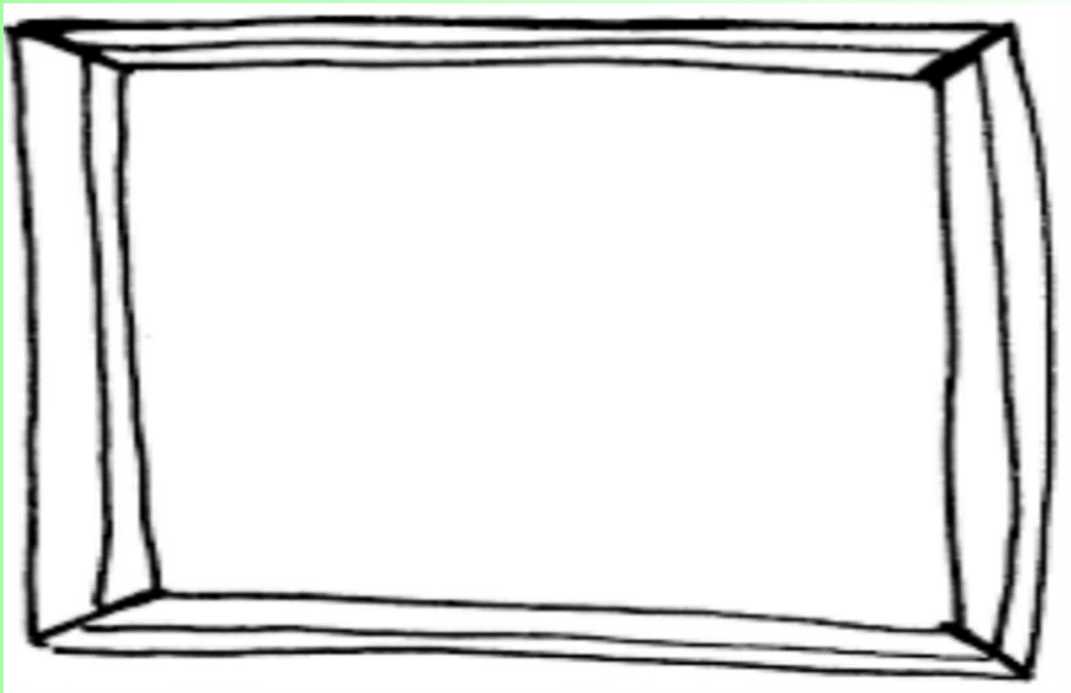

What are you good at?

Remember: your talents may not be the same as your friends but that is ok.

We are all the same, we are all different but we are all equal.

What is your hidden talent? Draw a picture of yourself doing it.
