What does the word possession mean?

Apostrophes can be used to show that something belongs to someone or something. This is called possession.

When we are talking about one thing, we call this singular.
For example, a man or a bike.
When we need to say that something belongs to something singular, we put an apostrophe and then an 's' at the end of the name it belongs to.
e.g. the man's bike.
