

Making a flower magazine

Last year the year 1s made a flower book, to give to the new reception classes, to help them when looking for flowers in the playground.

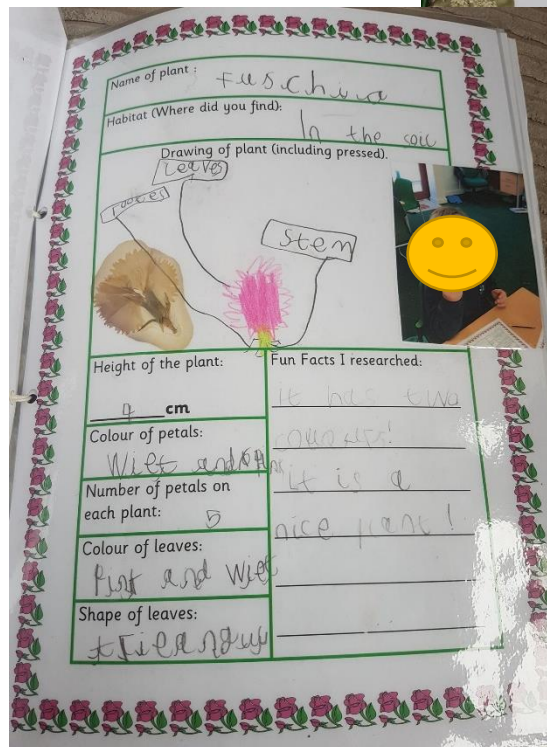

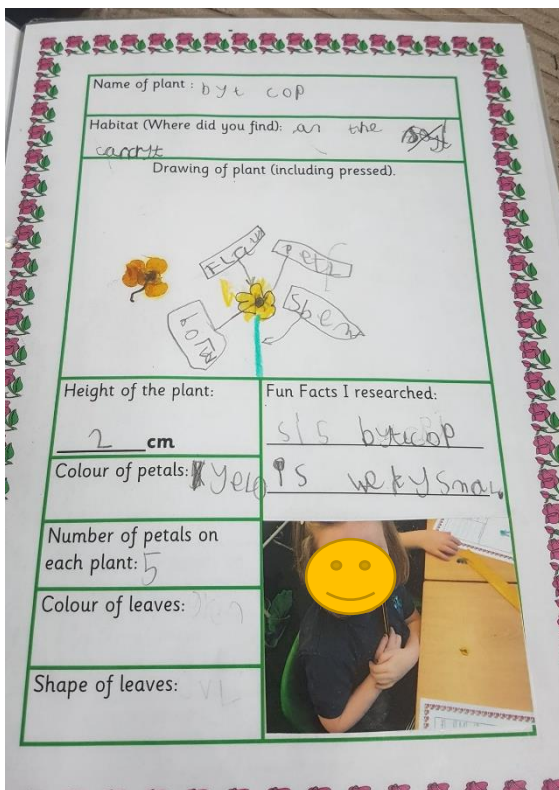

You may have seen this book in your classroom

1. Write your name on the line and draw 4 different flowers you may have found in the boxes.
Feel free to decorate the page as much as you like, it is your book!

2. Fill in a flower fact file, try to choose a flower so it can be different to last week's one

Here are some of last year's ones

3. No magazine is complete without a puzzle page so have a go working out the secret message.

4. Write about your flower- How many adjectives can you use?!

5. Have a go filling in the all about me flower- imagine you were giving it to your new teacher- what would be helpful for them to know about you?

6. Last but not least have a go at the flower word search.

Write about why you chose your flower.

See how many fantastic adjectives you can include:

Example:

I chose this beautiful flower because I can find it in my kind Gran's garden. It has 7 long petals and a pungent floral scent. Its tall green stem makes it strong and sturdy in the wild wind.

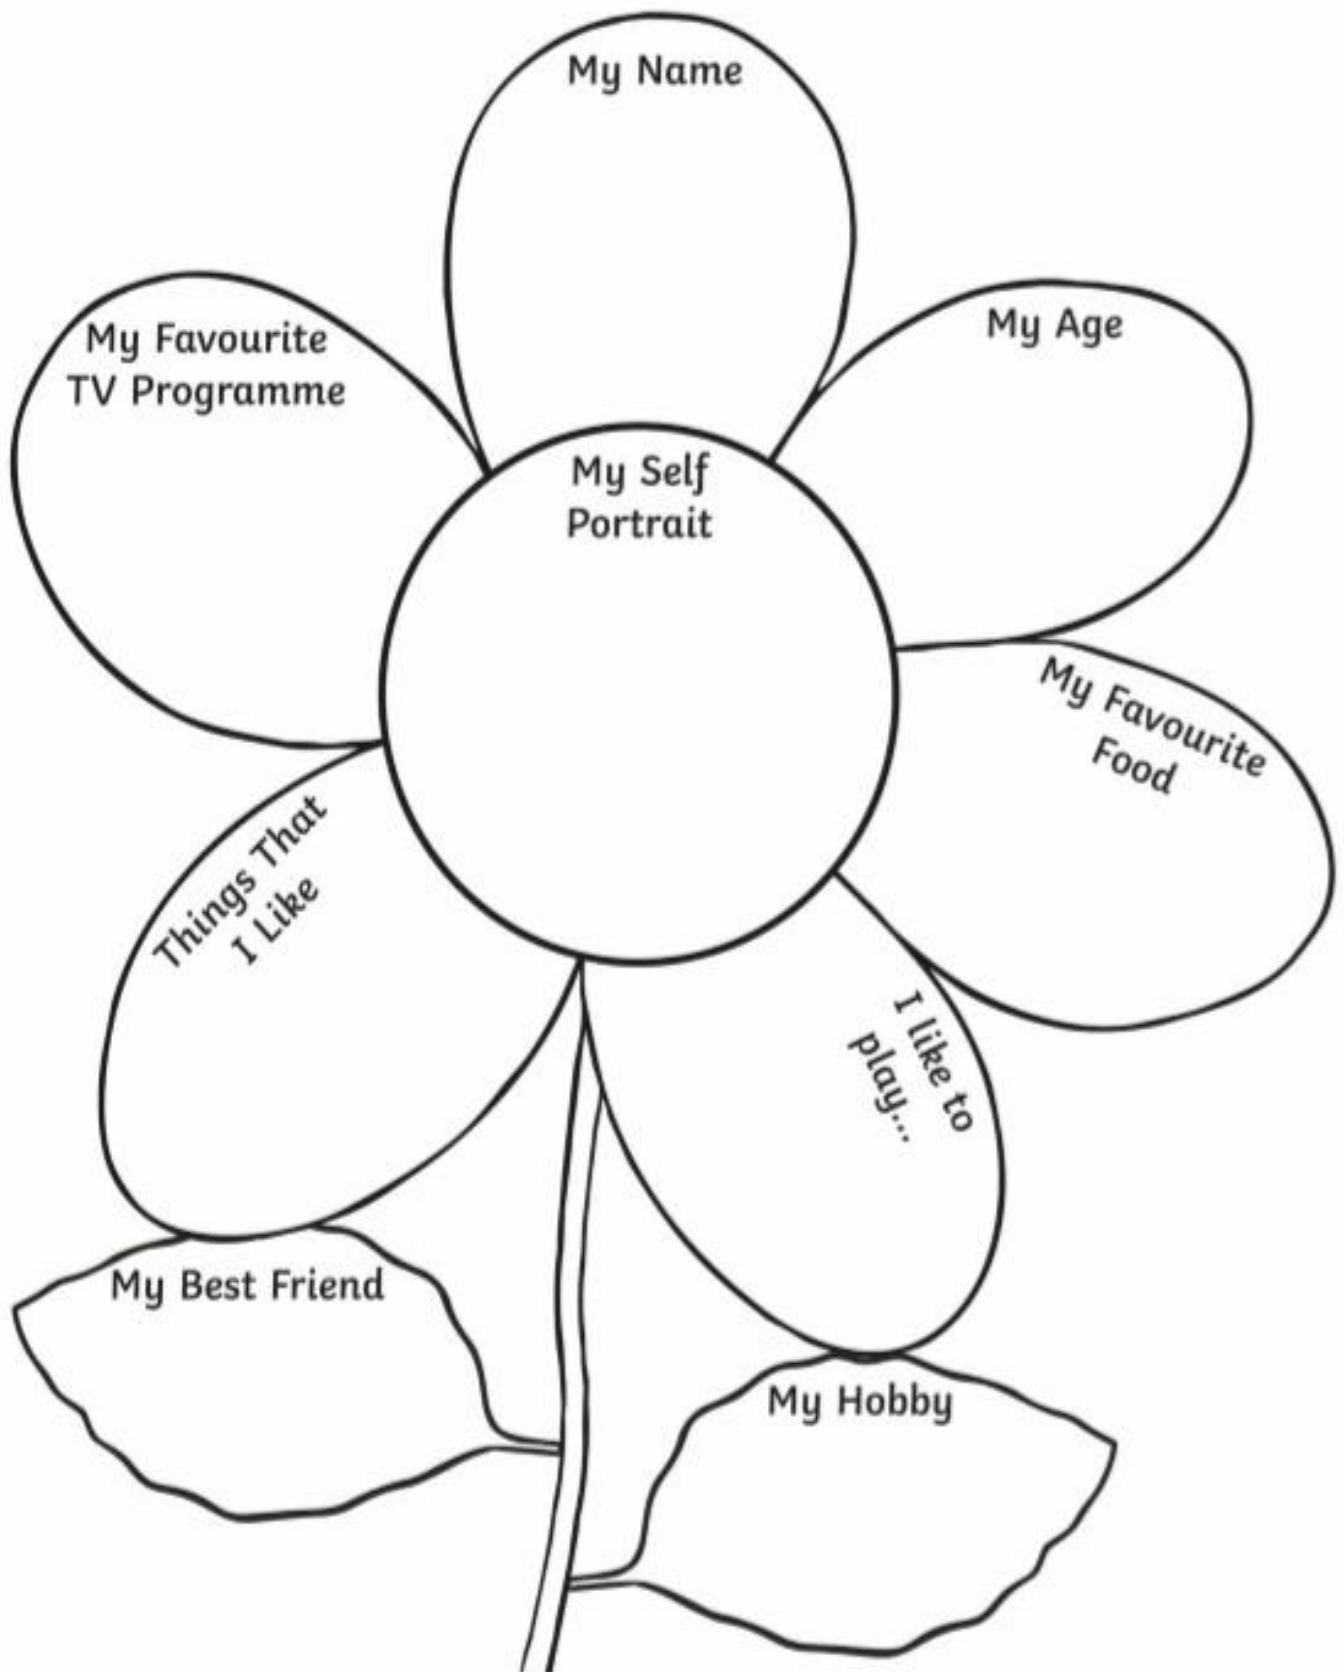

The page features a central writing area with ten horizontal lines, surrounded by a vibrant border of various flowers. The flowers include purple, pink, yellow, and red blooms, such as daisies, roses, and lilies. The Twinkl logo and website information are located in the bottom left corner of the writing area.
