

Key Learning: to use apostrophes for possession and omission Friday 22nd January 2021

Success Criteria:

I know the two times we use apostrophes

I can explain what possession and omission mean

I can identify why an apostrophe has been used

I can add in an apostrophe for possession or omission correctly

For the sentences below, write whether the apostrophe is for possession or omission:

Practise

	possession or omission?
Nemo's dad was determined to find him.
As Marlin swam through the sea, he didn't see the huge whale sneaking up behind him.
The sharks looked scary, but they weren't actually going to eat the fish.
The fishtank's water was getting murkier and murkier until it was hard to see out of.

The sharks cave was dark and gloomy.

Independent Task

Nemo did'nt know where he was.

Marlin wasnt going to stop looking for Nemo.

The pelican knew where Nemo was so he said "Ill take you!"

Can you write a sentence about Finding Nemo that has BOTH types of apostrophe in?
